A personality filled with surprises. Delightful to know. Calm and meditative one moment and giving vent to her sparkling wit the next. As frank in her dislikes as in her likes. Gives herself wholeheartedly to the task that lies before her. Who else, but Sallie could get away with eating pretzels, darning skirts or reading GOOD HOUSEKEEPING on—well, on class, and still make an enviable grade on the course?

She gets around quietly but when she becomes acquainted, she can have as much fun as anyone. She's an excellent student because she has that rare quality of persistency and thoroughness in all her work.

Kathleen has been our goal guard for the past three years and she has a knack for keeping balls out of the goal. She is a staunch friend whose admirable qualities will help to succeed in life.

Gladys is one of those quiet, sincere, diligent girls who are always willing to help when needed. She is an excellent student who does her work carefully, thoroughly and promptly. She is an attractive Titian blonde, a devoted and loyal friend.

MARGARET McQUEEN BRACY, A.B.

ROWLAND, N. C.

E. X.

Commercial Club, '33-'34; Sub-chairman Circle, Mission Study Leader, '34-'35.

Her McQueen ancestry shows in her height, poise and graceful carriage. Her majestic beauty is striking. A kindly, modest manner will add greatly to her already established reputation as a teacher. We shall always remember how willingly she helped us find obscure volumes in the library and how conscientiously she does all her work.

Maybe Helen will design clothes or become a technician since she is one of our ablest Home Economics students. But her accomplishments do not stop here—we'll always remember her as one of our best hockey players as well as a graceful dancer in May Day.

Peg o' the parties and proms! A cute little trick; athletic, extremely polite and accommodating, witty and thoroughly attractive. A most delightful person to have around—no wonder her calendar is always full.

What an air of sophistication you do present at times, Sarah—and then you may suddenly reverse moods and become a regular kid. Being the possessor of a rather temperamental disposition, you, however, have a deeply practical mind. You are always true blue and can always be depended upon when you have given your word. There's no other person like you—so just keep on being yourself—and luck to you!

Cabinet, '35-'36; President F.M.C.A., President S.C.A., William Bartram Society, Home Economics Club, Student Council, '36-'37.

Breathes there a girl with a sense of quality so benumbed that she fails to recognize Lillian's sterling worth? Indeed no. As President of the F.M.C.A., she has represented the highest and best in our college life. Diligence, patient understanding and conscientious thoroughness mark Lillian as one of our finest. Her talent for designing clothes will make a place for her in the domestic world.

Lovely, graceful, talented Mary. She sings beautifully and plays a skillful game of tennis. She is well known for her delightful sense of humor, and for her obliging disposition. Capable and ambitious she is—we are counting on Mary.

EVELYN EDENS. A.B.

RED SPRINGS, N. C.

E. X.

Commercial Club, Class Hockey Team, Class Basketball Team, '35-'36; Class Hockey Team, Class Basketball Team, '36-'37.

"I love not many words
No more than a fish loves water."

What would we have done through four long years of classes without petite Miss Edens to provide amusement with her witty remarks! Evelyn's a sure-cure for homesickness or loneliness, for she keeps up a steady stream of delightful chatter, interspersed with occasional giggles. On account of her gracefulness, she plays an important part in May Day. By the way, why not ask her if she knows anything about dentists or free clinics?

INEZ FRENCH, B.M.

SPENCER, N. C.

E. X.

Madrigal Club, Class Hockey Team, '33-'34; Subchairman Music Circle, Pine and Thistle Staff, Secretary Madrigal Club, Class Hockey Team, '34-'35; F.M.C.A. "In faith, lady, you have a merry heart." Unpredictable, vivacious and exhuberant, Inez has a delightful sense of humor. Very talented—she sings, plays, and writes—while possessing a modicum of temperament. Extremely original, never satisfied with the old order, she is a clever conversationalist and a delightful companion. One is never bored with her sameness.

BILLY GAMMON, A.B.

LAVRAS, MINAS, BRAZIL

E. X.

Class Hockey, Basketball, Soccer, Fire Squad, Prayer Band Leader, Mission Study Leader, William Bartram Society, '34-'35; Class Hockey, Fire Squad, Treasurer William Bartram, Business Manager Pine and Thistle, Delegate N.C.C.P.A., Mission Study Leader, Secretary Library Circle, Davidson Conference Delegate, '35-'36; Class Hockey, Class Basketball, Soccer Manager, Assistant Business Manager Pine and Thistle, Athletic Board, Treasurer William Bartram Society, Prayer Band Leader, President Student Volunteer Group, '36-'37.

Brazil's loss was our gain when Billy came to us in the middle of our Freshman year. She is a diligent, careful student, inclined toward scientific interests. Sometimes we lose the point in Billy's reminiscences because her beautiful Portuguese cannot be translated into every-day English. Her many friends will attest to her able leadership and guidance in the Student Volunteer Group. She will make an eager missionary when she goes back home where orchids grow in her back yard.

RUTH GREYARD, A.B.

McDONALD, N. C.

Z.

Reserved. Shy, almost self-conscious but not afraid. She is quiet, unruffled and dignified until she is ready to play; then she does that as she does everything else—thoroughly.

RUTH ELLIS HALL, B.S.

KATRINE, VA.

E. X.

Madrigal Club, Virginia Club, '33-'34; Virginia Club, Home Economics Club, '34-'35; Archery Club, Home Economics Club, Virginia Club, Fire Squad, Tea Room Manager, '35-'36; President Home Economics Club, Tea Room Manager, Chaplain Epsilon Chi Society, Pine and Thistle Staff, President Virginia Club, '36-'37.

One should know her to fully realize her true worth. She gives the impression of being very quiet and unassuming; but hidden behind that quietness is the capacity for meeting almost any responsibility. Thorough in whatever she does, she seems to fit into the picture, not as the woman with a career, though she is capable of pursuing one, but as the efficient manager of her own household.

SUE HERRING, A B

ROSE HILL, N. C.

E. X.

Glee Club, Hockey Team, Basketball Team, E.X. Soccer Team, '33-'34; Glee Club, Hockey Team, Varsity Basketball, Manager E.X. Soccer Team, May Court, Sub-chairman Religious Meetings Circle, Treasurer Atbletic Association, Athletic Board, Monogram Club, '34-'35; Glee Club, Hockey Team, Commencement Marshal, Student Activities Board, President Epsilon Chi Society, Student Council, '35-'36; Glee Club, Hockey Team, Basketball Team, Manager E.X. Soccer Team, College Superlatives, Student Activities Board, President Epsilon Chi Society, Student Council, Best All round Athlete, '36-'37.

An interesting person, reserved and a little hard to know but her friendship is definitely worth the effort. Her originality combined with a flare for the artistic makes her a "designing female." Her ability in so many fields was recognized by the student body and won for her the title "Versatile." She can really do anything you want done and end entertain you with her dry, subtle wit while at the task.

BILLIE HONEYCUTT, B.M.

CLINTON, N. C.

Z.

Bill is quiet and unassuming except when she comes up with a good crack and then she gets a big kick from her victim's confusion. She plays the piano beautifully and stands high in her classes. We all admire her for making such a grand success of her college years. If you hear someone humming softly as she moves, you may be sure Bill is near.

BRYAN JOHNSON, A.B.

CLINTON, N. C.

Queens-Chicora College, '33-'34; Basketball Manager, '34-'35; Class President, Student Council, Mission Study Leader, Hockey Team, Basketball Team, Commencement Marshal, Junior editor WHITE HEATHER, Chairman of Proctors, '35-'36; Class President, Student Council, Mission Study Leader, Hockey Team, Basketball Team, College Superlatives, Senior Scribblers, F.M.C. Monogram, '36-'37.

Well read. A true burner of the mid-night oil—for at what other time could she gather her wealth of knowledge and play with us all day? One of those people who always seem to know more about you than you do about her. She has proudly led us through our Senior year, gaining our friendship and admiration. That she goes about all tasks in such a businesslike way proves she deserves her title "Executive."

MARY ELIZABETH KNIGHT, B.S.

MAXTON, N. C.

E. X.

Home Economics Club, '34-'35; William Bartram Society, Home Economics Club, '35-'36; William Bartram Society, Home Economics Club, '36-'37.

A Bachelor of Science degree will probably be more immediately practical for Mary Lib than for most of the Seniors. She is very apt at sewing and cooking. Quiet, modest, unassuming she has many friends. Her quickness and thoroughness in the College Bookroom are appreciated by the entire school.

JENNIE MANNING, B.M.

BETHEL, N. C.

Z.

Conservatory Club, '35-'36; Music Club, Senior Recital, '36-'37.

Under a mantle of quietness and unobtrusiveness there lies a member of various talents. As a writer of short stories and even poetry, she ranks among the best. She plays both the piano and violin, and is always gracious in responding to our numerous requests to appear on our programs. An exceptional student, she, however, does not forget that a bit of humor splashed here and there results in a more interesting portrayal of work. To know her is to admire her for her depth of character and for her superb initiative and ability.

JANE MacLAUCHLIN MacKINNON, A.B.

MAXTON, N. C.

Z.

Presbyterian Junior College, '33-'35; F.M.C.A. Cabinet, Chairman of Religious Meetings Circle, Manager Basketball, '35-'36; F.M.C.A. Cabinet, Chairman Highway of Spiritual Life, Pine and Thistle Staff, Manager Basketball, Senior Scribblers, '36-'37.

Few people realize the real worth of this "bonnie Scotch lassie" who is a brilliant, though easy-going student. Her dry humor provides many crushing retorts, while her love of the beautiful in nature and humanity is the source of her excellent poetry. A familiar figure at meetings of Presbyterian young people, she presides with the poise of a Venus. Have you met Jane's preacher friends, or at least a cousin! Luck should come her way, she deserves it.

SARA ELIZABETH McCORMICK, A.B.

McDONALD, N. C.

Z.

Glee Club, '33-'34; Prayer Band Leader, Secretary Finance Circle, '34-'35; Secretary Finance Circle, Prayer Band Leader, Vice President Life Service Band, '35-'36; Prayer Band Leader, '36-'37.

"The more the merrier" is Sara Lib's code of living. She loves people individually and collectively. Her deep love of children helps to explain her success as a teacher. Friendliness of manner, kindness and generosity of heart, stability and sincerity identify Sara Lib as a character altogether worthy.

ELIZABETH TAYLOR McKETHAN, B.M.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

Class Basketball, Soccer Team, Madrigal Club, '33-'34; Class Basketball Team, Soccer Team, Class Hockey Team, Madrigal Club, Sub-chairman Finance Circle, '34-'35; Class Basketball Team, Class Hockey Team, Madrigal Club, Secretary Music Club, President Athletic Association, Student Council, College Superlative, Head Marshal, May Court, '35-'36; Class Hockey Team, Class Basketball Team, Madrigal Club, Music Club, F.M.C.A. Cabinet, President Student Body, Student Council, F.M.C. Monogram, College Superlative, May Court, Senior Scribbler, Senior Recital, '36-'37.

A gracious smile, a genial sense of humor, poise and tact. Lib's strength of character, attractiveness and pleasing personality win everyone to her. Her capability and executive ability have been manifested throughout her college career. Worthy of any trust, a talented musician, a fine leader, a good sport, a true friend she is. Of Lib we would say:

"You have deserved
High commendation, true applause, and love."

REBECCA MUSE, B.M.

LAURINBURG, N. C.

P.J.C., '33-'34; Conservatory Club, '34-'35; Conservatory Club, '35-'36; Secretary Conservatory Club, Madrigal Club, First Vice President Zetesian Literary Society, Senior Piano Recital, '36-'37.

Becky's piano playing seems to get its lightness and its lovely touch from her personality. She is always neat and well groomed and as first vice president of the Zetesian Literary Society, has often contributed to the interesting meetings. She has already shown us that she will make a very good teacher.

VIRGINIA ORR, A.B.

RICHWOOD, W. VA.

E. X.

Hockey, Glee Club, '33-'34; Pine and Thistle Staff, May Court, '34-'35; Critic, Epsilon Chi Society, Commencement Marshal, '35-'36; Critic, Epsilon Chi Society, May Court, College Superlatives, '36-'37.

She is completely "Orrish"; her ways are characteristic of her personality. She spells love with a capital L—loves to live but lives to love. A "knit-wit" of the first order is our Beauty. She stands to us as a shining example of "pretty is as pretty does," so we elected her Most Beautiful.

ONA PATTERSON, B.S.

MOORESVILLE, N. C.

E. X.

Home Economics Club, Class Basketball, '34-'35; Prayer Band Leader, Archery Club, Home Economics Club, '35-'36; Secretary Home Economics Club, Hockey Team, '36-'37.

Ona is one of those girls who are at home in any crowd. She sews well, is always neatly dressed, and is an excellent cook. A good student, a thoughtful and sincere friend, she will succeed in anything she undertakes.

HAZEL PERRY, A.B.

COFIELD, N. C.

E. X

Basketball Team, Hockey Team, '33-'34; Social Leader of Missionary Circle, '34-'35; Basketball Team, '36-'37.

Accommodating is the word for Hazel. Always ready to help out, whatever the circumstances may be. We like her for her willingness and unselfish disposition.

With her patience and love for children she will make a fine teacher.

ELEANOR WEBB POWE, A.B.

SYLACAUGA, ALA.

Z.

Basketball, '33-'34; Basketball, Hockey, Prayer Band Leader, '34-'35; Treasurer Zetesian Society. Sub-chairman Circles, Basketball, Hockey, '35-'36; Chaplain Zetesian Society, Basketball Team, Hockey Team, May Court, '36-'37.

"The Lady in Red" shall we say? Certainly she is a lady in the fullest sense of the word and red is her favorite color. With her quaint beauty, her proud and spirited mien, Eleanor represents the typical Southern belle. She, with a fine appreciation for literary beauty, is a lover of poetry. Affable in conversation, loyal in friendship and ambitious in living—all go to make up that interesting personality we know as Eleanor.

MARY GRACE POYNOR, A.B.

FLORENCE, S. C.

E. X

Coker College, '33-'35.

Mary Grace has been with us only two years; in that short time she has quietly taken her place among us and we cannot remember the class without her. She is seldom angry, forgives easily, and has won the hearts of us all. Never call her too serious, or too gay—she's a rare good sport.

MARGARET PRITCHARD, A.B.

SAVANNAH, GA.

Z.

Hockey Team, Basketball Team, Soccer Team, Glee Club, '33-'34; Hockey Team, Varsity Hockey, Soccer Team, "M" Club, Pine and Thistle Staff, William Bartram Society, Prayer Band Leader, Secretary Student Volunteers, Sub-chairman Social Service Circle, '34-'35; Hockey Team, Head of Hockey, Pine and Thistle Staff, William Bartram Society, Mission Student Leader, F.M.C.A. Cabinet, '35-'36; Hockey Team, Assistant Editor Pine and Thistle, William Bartram Society, Mission Study Leader, Vice President F.M.C.A., F.M.C. Monogram, '36-'37.

When to Pritchard Fate held forth jewels in one hand and wisdom in the other, she chose the other. For four years she has commanded our admiration with her intellectual prowess. We can say of her what can be said of few: that she always does a thing well. Pritchard's ambition is to become a doctor; and if a brilliant mind and conscientious work make a doctor, we have no doubt about her M.D.

MARGARET PATRICK REID, A.B.

LOWELL, N. C.

Class Hockey Team, Class Basketball Team, Soccer Team, '33-'35; Class Hockey Team, Class Basketball Team, '34-'35; Class Hockey Team, Class Basketball Team, '35-'36; Class Hockey Team, Class Basketball Team, '36-"37.

Margaret, the youngest as well as the tallest member of the class, is a champion at sports. She plays a brilliant tennis game, and is a valuable asset to the hockey and basketball teams. Not only does Margaret excel in athletics but also in the mathematical field. When we were in a dilemma over math problems, Margaret good-naturedly solved them in an efficient manner. She shows excellent taste and discernment, is generous and inordinately fond of fun. For the benefit of the uninitiated, we suggest Margarrt hang out a shingle engraved with the words "Tap Dancing."

BEATRICE FARQUHAR ROBESON, A.B.

Glee Club, Class Hockey Team, '33-'34; Class Hockey Team, Class Basketball Team, Hockey Varsity, William Bartram Scientific Society, '34-'35; Class Hockey Manager, Varsity Hockey, William Bartram Scientific Society, Assistant Business Manager WHITE HEATHER, Secretary and Treasurer Day Students, Delegate N.C.C.P.A., '35-'36; Senior Hockey Manager, May Court, William Bartram Society, Business Manager WHITE HEATHER, Delegate N.C.C.P.A., '36-'37.

As our hockey manager, Bea led her team to victory in two tournaments. She has administered very successfully the thankless job of Business Manager of the annual. People who don't know her think she is quiet, but underneath her seniorial dignity, she often is giggling. She accomplishes wonders in an unobstrusive way and has the honor of being a member of the May Court.

MARY WILSON ROSS, A.B.

PATZCUARO MICHOACAN

Cabinet, Chairman Religious Meetings Highway, Class Hockey, President Student Volunteers, '35-'36; F.M.C.A. Cabinet, Chairman of Social Service Highway, William Bartram Society, Music Club, Class Tennis, English Club, '36-'37.

Mary Wilson's talents are numerous. She is a combination of virtues—the best to be found in a missionary, a poet, and a musician. She is a pianist who plays with feeling and an enthusiastic participant in sports. Her quaint beauty is enhanced by a quick, cheerful smile. Her love of beauty in all forms will make the world a better and finer place.

BILLIE JANE RUFF, B S.

Easy going, slow, cutely capable. On first acquaintance Billy may be classified as reserved but only the lucky person who knows her extremely well appreciates her fun and humor. Her talent for designing and making clothes was recognized when she returned from the style show in Raleigh with one of the coveted prizes. Keep it up, Billy!

Cabinet, Chairman of Literary Group, '36-'37.

Pauline is industrious, with a knack for designing that few persons possess. Until she really has something to say she is rather quiet; then her ideas and suggestions are always practical. She has been a fine librarian for the F.M.C.A.

MARY LOUISE SMITH, A B

BLUEFIELD, W VA.

Z.

Business Manager Pine and Thistle, William Bartram Society, Fire Squad, '34-'35; Editor-in-Chief Pine and Thistle, Chairman Student Activities Board, Mission-Study Leader, William Bartram Society, '35-'36; Associate Editor Pine and Thistle, Senior Editor WHITE HEATHER, William Bartram Society, Class Historian, '36-'37.

Our Alexander Woolcott! The possessor of literary taste par excellence is Mary Lou. Her expert knowledge of books, and of happenings—past and present—leads one to the natural and logical conclusion that she is well read. She has a certain habit of orderliness and neatness that is exemplified in her dress, her work, and in everything pertaining to herself.

With her intelligence and ambition she is destined to go far.

VIRGINIA ELIZABETH SMYTH, A B

BLUEFIELD, W. VA.

Conference Delegate, '35-'36; Treasurer of F.M.C.A., Cabinet, William Bartram Society, '36-'37.

Bustle! Bustle! Here comes Ginny seemingly with the cares of the world on her small shoulders. Who else could have kept the F.M.C.A. finances in neat blue figures instead of red? Who else could have helped chemistry and math students through discouraging times? Ginny's passion for pretty shoes accounts for her many pairs. Truly, she has a place in our class which could not have been filled by anyone else.

Cabinet, Chairman Publicity Highway, Secretary William Bartram Scientific Society, Glee Club, '36-'37.

Witty, capable, efficient is Eugenia, who makes "A" on practically every subject. We missed her the first part of the year, and we are glad that she is back to graduate with us. She is a great asset in our F.M.C.A. work. You have really missed a treat if you haven't seen her posters with letters in Old English script.

A perfect lady at all times—that is Ethel. Her appearance is neat and her speech is flavored by a spicy South Carolinian accent. Straightforward she is. Anyone attempting to read Ethel's seemingly serious thoughts, would be surprised to find a vein rich in wit and occasional caustic observations. Ethel is a good student who pigeon-holes her knowledge, arranging it neatly, so that she can call upon any bit of information at an instant's notice. She, a loyal and sincere friend, is extremely thoughtful of others.

The true outdoor girl is Kate. She love her dogs and horses with a love that only the true sportswoman knows. But first in Kate's heart comes gardening; some day she will have gardens and greenhouses of her own and who knows but that the "black tulip" itself might burst from her carefully tended acres. Excellent in literary works and appreciation, a student of depth and thought, a highly cultured person—that is Kate, and even then we have just begun.

LENA JORDAN STEWART, B.M

ABERDEEN, N. C.

Hockey Team, '33-'34; F.M.C.A. Cabinet, Chairman Music Circle, '34-'35; F.M.C.A. Cabinet, Chairman Bible Study Circle, President Conservatory Club, Two-piano recital, '35-'36; Recording Secretary Epsilon Chi Society, Senior Recital, Music Club, Basketball, '36-'37.

A truly interesting person whose personality as well as her music casts a charm on all who know her. Her high ideals and honest clean living make her friendly toward everyone. We wish for Lena the best there is—she deserves it.

ELLA LEE TAYLOR, B.M

She laughs and the world laughs with her. Ella Lee is one of those rare and lovable persons who have never known a stranger. Big-hearted, jovial, friendly, fun-loving Ella Lee. How we all love her —from the greenest freshman to the most staid and dignified of the faculty. A lover of musical art and a true musician herself, Ella Lee is destined to have a brilliant career in the musical realm.

EDNA TEAGUE, B.M

SILER CITY, N. C.

E. X.

Sub-chairman Music Circle, Prayer Band Leader, Glee Club, Mission Study Leader, Class Secretary, Class Basketball Team, Tennis Team, Society Basketball Team, '33-'34; Sub-chairman Missionary Circle, Vice President Class, Prayer Band Leader, Madrigal Club, '34-'35; Chairman Literary Circle, F.M.C.A. Cabinet, President Conservatory Club, Class Treasurer, Glee Club, Class Basketball, Mission Study Leader, Chairman Music Highway, '36-'37.

Efficient and capable to the nth degree is Edna. If you ever want a task done right call on her. She has done a thorough job of checking practice, much to the discomfitment of the tardy music students. Ever willing to help others even to the extent of sacrificing her own pleasure and time, she is thoughtful, generous—an excellent pianist. Of her it may justly be said:

"She taketh delight
In Music."

MARY MORRIS TERRY, A B

LEXINGTON, N. C.

E. X.

Vice President Freshman Class, Fire Squad, Delegate to North Carolina Collegiate Press Association, Hockey, '33-'34; Class Cheer Leader, Archery, Second Vice President Epsilon Chi Society, Assistant Business Manager Pine and Thistle, Delegate to N.C.C.P.A., Snap Shot Editor WHITE HEATHER, Hockey, '34-'35; Assistant Editor WHITE HEATHER, Prayer Band Leader, Archery Club, Class Cheer Leader, Delegate to N.C.C.P.A., Senior Play, '35-'36; Editor-in-Chief WHITE HEATHER, Archery Club, Class Cheer Leader, Chairman Student Activities Board, College Superlatives, May Court, Chief Scribe Senior Scribblers, Secretary N.C.C.P.A., Class Prophet, '36-'37.

A twirl of a curl, fast and witty retorts—a clever tongue—explosive one minute, cool and sophisticated the next—serious under it all—she has that certain brilliant touch. Naturally, Sis, as the most capable girl in school was the only one who could edit our annual. She has yet to be surpassed in her ingenious instinct as to the fitness of certain people for certain offices.

MILDRED AMANDA THOMAS, B.S.

BARIUM SPRINGS, N. C.

Class Basketball Team, '33-'34; Home Economics Club, Prayer Band Leader, '34-'35; William Bartram Scientific Society, Home Economics Club, '35-'36; William Bartram Society, Home Economics Club, Class Basketball Team, '36-'37.

Although quiet and unassuming, Mildred performs her work with assurance and can rise to any occasion which presents itself. Her lovable disposition and friendly smile have won our hearts—as well as that of a certain Wake Forest student. We know Mildred will be a good teacher, for she has the necessary attributes—ability, patience, and ambition—but we wonder whether she will use her talents to teach or to keep house.

William Bartram Society, '33-'34; William Bartram Society, '34-'35; William Bartram Society, '35-'36; William Bartram Society, '36-'37.

A walking bureau of information—always tells you the time and place—if there is anything you want to be positive about, see Annie Reid. She is loyal. Can we ever forget how proudly she wore and protected our red and white, or how attentive she was to our ailing rooster? If her pupils are like their teacher, we feel sure there will be a surplus of presidential candidates, at some future election.

SERENE LEE TURNAGE, B.M.

She is someone you want to know. Her quiet calm and eye-taking beauty make her one of our outstanding girls. Because of her culture, grace, and beauty we turn toward her on May Day and pay homage to Serene, our May Queen.

RUTH UNDERWOOD. A.B.

ALBEMARLE, N. C.

Tennis Team, '34-'35; Archery Club, '35-'36; Tennis Team, '36-'37.

Thorough. Everything she does she does well—and she does so much. A well rounded girl, liked by all, ready for any fun, but knows when to stop and be dignified. Ruth has been a quiet student but a definite asset to the class.

ELIZABETH WATSON WALLACE. B.M.

A golden haired doll and a dancing one at that—that's Mickey. What would we have done for entertainment had it not been for her original tap dancing? But look further down the list of Mickey's attributes—a lovely voice; a star when it comes to athletics (especially hockey); a keen intellect, and a disposition as sunny as her hair.

MARY PEPPER WELLS, A B.

Charming, gracious, and capable, Pep has found a place among us which no one else could fill. Even though she has been with us for only three years, we have proof of her reliability and high ideals. If Pep should tire of the teaching profession, she could apply for a position as librarian—experience is a wonderful recommendation. This year Pep has been a competent executive of the William Bartram Society, even promoting a personally conducted tour through Fort Bragg. May we inquire concerning the most favorable nights for star-gazing? More power to you, Pep.

"Roommate! Where art thou?" Through her spontaneous friendliness, Cary has won her way into our hearts. She loves to eat up and yet underneath the exterior there is a strength of character which cannot be overlooked. She is one of those persons who smile on all occasions. We know she'll make a fine nurse.

You can never appreciate her until you know her—thoughtful, systematic and capable. She will go through life with her nose in the air (nature made it so) but there will be a smile and a willingness to help wherever you find Isabel.

Quick steps, flashing smile, and sparkling, dark eyes—there is Margaret. Much of the success of the hockey team is due to her alert and consistent good playing; however, she is not only athletic, she sews better. She is one who has a place that only she can fill.

"Let no man despise thy youth: but be thou an example of the believer, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." I Timothy 4:12. This is the standard as it endeavors to lead students to faith in God, the Father, through Jesus Christ, His Son and our Savior. It further seeks to promote their growth in Christian faith and character and to influence them to devote themselves in united effort with all Christians in making the will of Christ effective in human society.

Granddaughter's Club

Virginia Club

Dr. Vardell once called for a meeting of the daughters of alumnae to see just how many there are in school. When the girls realized what a group they made up they organized the Granddaughter's Club to keep alive the memories of all those mothers in whose steps they follow.

The Virginia Club is one of long standing, the Virginia girls having been active here for many years. This year they have carried on with many profitable and enjoyable meetings.

South Carolina Club

West Virginia Club

The South Carolina Club is the largest state club on the campus, comprised of girls from our sister state. The most outstanding is our President Emeritus, Dr. C. G. Vardell, but there are other loyal members, who help to make our school life more enjoyable by their presence here.

From those West Virginia hills came eleven girls this year who broke away from the Virginia Club and organized for themselves. We look up to this group of girls because of the place they have made for themselves; out of eleven all are active in campus organizations, while seven hold coveted offices and positions.

Day Students

The Day Students are an important group on the campus, admired for their standing. This year more than ever before the bond of friendship has been stronger between the Day Students and Boarding Students.

Conservatory Club

Edna Teague
President

The Flora Macdonald Conservatory Club organized under the direction of Dean Hugh P. Williamson is one of the very few college music clubs in North Carolina. The club was organized and federated in 1936 and the first official meeting was held in October of that year when the constitution was drawn up.

The membership is made up of forty-two conservatory students, who chose as their theme for the year "The Study of Famous Musicians." The purpose of the club is to increase the understanding and enjoyment of music through musical and social activities.

The class of '37 came away with all the laurels again this fall thus proving the much quoted phrase "history repeats itself." The team was especially determined and interested; their practices were well attended and nineteen of the players can boast of having played four or more quarters. As the champions they challenged the faculty to a game, but did they not accept. Scared?

Bea Johnston
Captain

The Junior Hockey team showed vast improvement this year under the splendid leadership of Bea Johnston. They exhibited some good passwork, and an excellent spirit of cooperation. The backfield especially deserves mention for its fine defense. Due to the loss of many of the best players, the greatest weakness of this team was in numbers. In spite of this handicap, they put up a splendid fight—the Seniors had to work for their victory!

After a first year as an inexperienced, unorganized team the sophomores of this year showed a decided improvement and proved dangerous to all opponents. With new players to help the old standbys the Sophomores made a place for themselves in the tournament. The fight between the Juniors and Seniors of next year promises to be a good one.

Betty Yates
Captain

Although most of the Freshmen had never played hockey before, they were enthusiastic beginners. By exhibiting great interest and attending practices, the girls learned quickly to play together cooperatively. They made a fine showing against the more experienced upperclass teams; their greatest triumph was the scoring of three goals against the Seniors, an event which has never before occurred in a Senior vs. Freshman game.

JANE MACKINNON
Captain

Senior Basketball Team

Senior basketball this year has praved to be quite interesting. Althaugh the cold, rainy weather somewhat impeded practice, the Seniors came through with calors flying in the final test. Particularly are they ta be commended for their brilliant passwark; four years af warking together had created a natural sense af teamwork and their success was assured.

Junior Basketball Team

MARY LIB MERRITT
Captain

For the Junior team we can say that again in their third year they have maintained their splendid record in basketball. They seem to have reached the finishing steps in speed, teamwork, and sportsmanship. The guards, who were considered dangerous, kept the ball in the hands of their forwards who with swift steps and timed cooperation made goals which gave the Juniors their high standing.

IRENE SMITH
Captain

Sophomore Basketball Team

Although practices were few last year due to generally bad weather, the Sophomores had not forgotten how to handle a basketball since their high school days. A good mixture of practices, sportsmanship and teamwork led to the road of success and victory. Speaking of pep, they had it!

Freshman Basketball Team

ELECTA BROWN
Captain

A large majority of the girls who went out for basketball had played in high school and were quickly organized into a splendid team. Captain Electa Brown, in organizing the girls into a threatening group of basketball players, proved efficient and valuable to the freshman team. This team made a desperate fight to win a high place in the tournament.

Tennis

Tennis has always been a favarite sport and this year is no exception. The girls have displayed an unusual interest in this well known pastime which is evidenced by the pink, purple, blue, and yellow suits dotting the caurts. With their tennis terms and shrieks of laughter, the familar "ping" of racket and ball is heard an each clear day. If the ald adage "practice makes perfect" is true, somewhere among these enthusiasts we should find a Helen Wills Moody.

Archery

Archery doesn't hold the interest for many girls that hockey does, but for a group it is the major sport. On the archery range, we get our exercise and good posture through the spare hours spent in practice. The girls hove developed splendid form and with many bulls-eyes to their credit are ready for any opposition that might come their way.

Archery is a year round sport with a fascinoting history that attracts the attention of many of its fans, and has wonderful possibilities for girls who are interested.
